

News

For Immediate Release

Ann Arbor Michigan
January 2013

LeDuc Creative Celebrates 35th Year

The LeDuc Creative Company proudly celebrates their 35th year of business in 2013. Over the past few decades, they have worked to establish themselves as innovators in marketing and advertising for a wide range of clients. Maintaining a strong focus on forward thinking, LCCo has successfully progressed from print to digital and from old school to new school by consistently providing clients with exceptional services in logo design, corporate identity packages, project management, website design and development, and much more.

Through the clever combination of art, business, technology and thought, LCCo has always strived for excellence and the satisfaction of clients. From medical to manufacturing business, restaurants and academic institutions, LeDuc Creative has proudly served companies with creative solutions in representing their brand.

Whether you need press releases, ads, billboards or entire strategic marketing packages, LCCo is dedicated to making clients the number one priority and meeting and exceeding their advertising needs. As 2013 marks their 35th year of business, LeDuc Creative looks forward to providing creative marketing strategies and innovation for clients for many years to come.

